Sir:

I enclose herewith the application of John McManara for a passport for himself, his wife, and three children - together with his certificate of naturalization. - I believe the descriptions are properly made out. -

As Mr McManara's journey is delayed only for his passport, may I ask the favor of its transcription immediately -

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,

WASHINGTON, August, 1857.

Citizens of the United States visiting foreign countries are liable to serious inconvenience, if unprovided with authentic proof of their national character. Their best safeguard is a passport from this Department, certifying the bearer to be a citizen of the United States. Passports are issued gratuitously upon application supported by proof of citizenship.

This proof need be transmitted but once. On all subsequent occasions, a simple reference to it, and to the period when it was presented, will be sufficient.

When the applicant is a native citizen of the United States, he must transmit an affidavit of this fact, signed by him, stating his age and place of birth, and sworn to by himself, and one other citizen of the United States named therein, to whom he is personally known, and to the best of whose knowledge and belief the declaration made by him is true. This affidavit must be attested by a Notary Public, under his signature and seal of office. When there is no Notary in the place, the affidavit may be made before a Justice of the Peace, or other officer authorized to administer oaths.

If the applicant be a naturalized citizen, his certificate of naturalization must be transmitted for inspection. It will be returned with the passport. The widow or the children of a naturalized citizen must transmit the certificate of the naturalization of the husband or the father, stating under oath that they are such widow or children.

The application should be accompanied by a description of the person, stating the following particulars, viz: Age: 40 years. Stature: 5 feet 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches (English measure.) Forehead: Full. Eyes: Blue. Nose: Roman. Mouth: .
Skin: Ruddy. Hair: Dark. Complexion: Ruddy. Face: Full.

When the applicant is to be accompanied by his wife, children, or servants, or by females under his protection, it will be sufficient to state the name and ages of such persons, and their relationship to the applicant.

Persons who leave the country, expecting to obtain passports, whilst abroad, from the Diplomatic or Consular agents of the United States, are liable to disappointment; inasmuch as it is the duty of those agents not to grant documents of that character, except to persons who are certainly known to be entitled to them; and it is sometimes difficult, if not impracticable, to procure proof of this fact in a foreign country.

Certificates of citizenship or passports issued by State authorities, or by Judicial or Municipal functionaries of the United States, are not recognized by the officers of foreign governments; and by the twenty-third section of the act of Congress, approved on the 18th of August last, it is made penal for such authorities and functionaries to issue such passports.

May I trouble you to call at the Department of State and procure "Pass-ports" for myself and family to Europe?

I expect to accompany them but only remain to see them settled. They go first to Germany and afterwards to France and will be absent about four years.

My passport must therefore be separate from Mrs. C. & the children, the ^{letter} can perhaps all be embraced in one.

I do not want the expense if any; but if you will have the goodness to pay any I shall remit it promptly on advice.

Dear Sir,

The mystery about the Passport of Jacob Bauer has cleared up, the genuine J. Bauer having made his appearance and called for the Passport. It appears that on the 7th inst., when I was kept very busy all day, I had forgotten to enter the name of Bauer in my Daybook, and thus when the Passport came I was not aware that I had applied for the same. I beg your Pardon for causing you trouble by my negligence.

It seems you are now overwhelmed with applications for Passports. On Wednesday the 11th inst. I applied for a Madame Peiser, who sails by the Adriatic today, but her Passport did not come this morning.

I delivered a letter, to your Excellency and containing Citron papers and application for passport of a Mr.
Rhynes, at the post office of this City on the afternoon of the 18th inst: and might have had a passport returned yesterday ^{morning}. It has not come yet, and as the steamer for which Mr. R. has taken his ticket, leaves in an hour and he can not well go without his passport, he is placed in a rather distressing position.
As I know of nothing that can have occasioned this unfortunate delay but neglect at the post office as somewhere else. at Washington I must respectfully request an investigation and a speedy remedy of this matter.

He has some years since the Commercial Agent & Consul of the United States for Lyons in France & I have known him personally for over thirty years. Please return the certificate of naturalization with the Passport. (over)
